Escape to your own riverside retreat in the charming town of Buxton. Situated on a large 3631 sqm allotment, this property offers unparalleled tranquillity and natural beauty. The Steavenson River flows gently by, providing endless opportunities for fishing and relaxation. The quaint home features three bedrooms, offering ample space for family and guests. The large living area is the heart of the home, complete with a wood fire, perfect for cozy evenings by the fire. The functional kitchen provides all the essentials, and the bathroom has been updated. Step outside through the double timber doors and onto the verandah, where you can sit back and enjoy your morning coffee or unwind after a long day, this verandah is the perfect spot to appreciate the beauty of nature. Whether you're seeking a peaceful getaway or a permanent residence, this riverside retreat is sure to impress. Don't miss your chance to own a slice of paradise in Buxton
