

26 Napier Street, Geilston Bay, Tas 7015

PETERSWALD
for property

Sold House

Thursday, 24 August 2023

26 Napier Street, Geilston Bay, Tas 7015

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 589 m2

Type: House

Harry Coomer
0448544100

Phoebe Nothling
0362247090

Contact agent

Ideally located within the ever-popular eastern shore suburb of Geilston Bay, wonderfully contemporary home offering spacious family living and contemporary style. Elevated at the rear of the property the light-filled open-plan living forms the heart of the home, with a sumptuous lounge combined with family dining that continues out to a sun-soaked deck to create a seamless indoor to outdoor flow. Incorporated within, the modern kitchen comes equipped with premium appliances, an array of storage, large breakfast bar within premium cabinetry. Comfortable accommodation comprises of three generous bedrooms, each inclusive of built-in wardrobes and plenty of natural light and warmth. Occupying a private space at the front of the home, the master comes complete with a stylish en-suite and walk-in wardrobe. The sleek main bathroom features a glass shower, luxurious freestanding bath, and a large vanity with storage and separate toilet adjacent. The homes laundry offers ample room for appliances and abundance of storage space with direct outdoor access. Outside the fully fenced yard enjoys a terraced garden bed, entertaining deck and garden shed for ease of outdoor maintenance. A carport provides space for one vehicle, along with additional off-street parking within the driveway. This exceptional family residence boasts a prime position, being in close proximity to schools, shopping centres, parks, and a mere few minutes' stroll from the waterfront. Revel in a premium way of life within one of the Eastern Shore's most coveted and sought-after areas.