This charming beach house offers effortless holiday living in the coveted Parker Street locale, just moments away from Anglesea's main beach, Surf Club and bustling café scene. Indulge in elevated coastal living with this split-level beach house, boasting timeless wooden floorboards and abundant natural light throughout. The seamless flow from the open-plan living area to the north facing deck creates an inviting space for outdoor entertaining amongst the treetops, where you can soak in the tranquil surroundings and enjoy the coastal breeze. With a layout perfectly suited for relaxation and enjoyment, the property features a functional kitchen, three comfortable bedrooms, updated bathrooms, and a European laundry, all thoughtfully designed to enhance comfort and convenience. In addition to covered parking and ample storage for beach essentials, the property sits on a generous 1004m² (app) allotment with established low-maintenance coastal landscaping, providing a private retreat amidst nature's beauty. Embrace the endless possibilities of coastal living - from lazy days at the beach to vibrant evenings in the bustling café scene, this property offers the ultimate seaside sanctuary. Whether you choose to move in, expand, or explore redevelopment possibilities (STCA), this property presents limitless potential for coastal living at its finest. Don't let this opportunity slip away - inquire now and make your coastal dreams a reality.
