If you have been looking for a clean canvas ready for you to design your new home, then this 688m² allotment could be the one. With the ability to enjoy views of the bay and the Hartz Mountains, often snow-capped in the winter, this is a great setting. With full town services, including power running underground alongside the boundary, concrete footpaths and street lighting, this property is a great investment or gateway into the market. Port Huon is a beautiful riverside town approximately 15 minutes drive from the Huon Valley hub in Huonville. This diverse, riverside community enjoys an abundance of boating and fishing opportunities, a great park and open area for both kids and fur kids, boat ramp and more. Port Huon is approximately 45 minutes drive from Hobart and is along the TassieLink bus route into Huonville, Kingston and the city. Plus you're just a short stroll to the Port Huon Trading Post and the township of Geeveston, where you will find all the services and shops you'd expect to find in a small country town just a short drive down the road.
