Located on the doorstep of the pristine beaches of Port Stephens is one of the most complete coastal retreats to hit the market in a long time. As you open the double entry you are immediately taken aback by the quality inclusions and impressive views to the rear of the expansive property. One would expect a home of this nature to come with high end finishes and you won't be left disappointed with 40mm bench tops, five large bedrooms including an opulent master suite, multiple living and dining options, a genuine theatre and an enormous shed for all of the toys. Wandering through the well presented grounds it's hard to miss the heated resort style pool with its own wet bar oh and did we mention the indoor pool which comes with its own viewing area off the kitchen? This sprawling home which is set on over 4000sqm has provided our motivated vendors with an impressive return on their investment via leasing the home to holiday makers. However like all things in life good things come to an end and they're excited to hand this exquisite home over to a new owner to create their own memories in what is a rare offering.
