UNABLE TO TAKE SUBJECT SALES If you're not in the market for acres of internals to clean and maintain but you're still dreaming of stunning sophistication in a charming spot on the Hill, you're probably already sold on the whimsical beauty of Greenmount. Many of the homes here are gloriously captivating, and this home might just be the Queen of All Charm. This meticulously renovated abode offers the best of both worlds: an aesthetically delightful interior with gardens and landscaping that rival the most quaint of historical Mount Lawley properties. Inside, you'll be welcomed by a delightful entrance that sets the tone for the entire home, a lovely formal lounge with glowing charm and character, a drop-dead gorgeous gourmet country kitchen, and picture-perfect bedrooms. In fact, we think you'll be hard-pressed to choose a favourite room to spend your precious downtime. There are three of these inviting sanctuary-like bedrooms here including a main suite with a private, romantic ensuite. And oh, the family bathroom. Just look at that freestanding clawfoot bath! Even the laundry is adorable (and large!) Beautiful decors flows throughout, adding warmth and character, while plantation shutters adorn every window for filtering the streaming sunlight and adding a touch of privacy. Features Include: • 1960-built stunningly renovated timber & iron home on gorgeous block • 3 beautiful bedrooms • 2 renovated bathrooms • Beautiful formal lounge • Stunning gourmet country kitchen with high-end appliances including 90cm Delonghi oven, 5 burner hob, dishwasher • Lovely entrance hall • Renovated family bathroom with clawfoot bath • Large & well-appointed laundry • Polished Jarrah floorboards & plantation shutters throughout • Ducted evaporative air conditioning throughout • Picturesque front verandah with views to the city • Solar panels • Huge undercover patio with decking, fans, cafe blinds & lighting, 6 burner Matador outdoor kitchen with stone benchtop, side hob, sink & bar fridge • Fully fenced yard plus grassed area & kennel for dogs • Fully reticulated easy-care front gardens including koi pond with bridge • Large 2 car garage • Undercroft workshop • Rear street access • 647sqm delightfully landscaped block You may find it difficult to want to step outside at all, but you'll be glad you did when you take in the showstopper just beyond the French doors. Out the back awaits a private paradise perfect for pottering about taking in the twinkling light views, reading and tea, or the most exclusive of soirees. This incredible space boasts a Matador six-burner outdoor kitchen complete with stone benchtops, a side hob, sink, and even a three-door commercial bar fridge. Let the kids run wild in the fully fenced backyard, get them to plan and plant out the veggie patches, and you can sit back and enjoy one of the best outdoor areas in the Hills. Plus! There's a hidden gem beneath the house - a fully powered undercroft workshop ideal for the handyperson, hobbyist, or those dreaming of a personal space for yoga, music, or art. For practicality, there's a separate double garage with rear access for storage and parking. And the best spot to start your entire day, every day, will be your heavenly front porch - what a joy to come home to. Midland is only minutes away in the car where you can access the cafe strip, cinema, shopping galore, and public transport to get you into the CBD or beyond. Not that you may ever want to leave once you're here. This place is a bit magic like. If you've already fallen in love just from the photos, wait until you see this home standing just on the opposite side of its white picket fence, looking over the koi pond.
