Unlock the boundless potential for improvement in this remarkable four-bedroom, two-bathroom Californian Bungalow. With its spacious floorplan, three living domains, and a versatile study, this home offers an unparalleled scope for enhancing and customizing to your heart's desire. Step inside to discover the charm of its 1920s era architecture, providing a classic backdrop to your future upgrades. The possibilities are endless as you envision modernizing the bathrooms, transforming the kitchen into your dream culinary haven, and creating the perfect blend of indoor-outdoor living with the covered deck and paved alfresco area. Embrace the opportunity to expand and extend the home in the future (STCA) to cater to your growing family needs or lifestyle aspirations. With ducted heating, air-conditioners, solar panels, and water tanks already in place, the foundation for a sustainable and comfortable living experience is ready for you to build upon. Located in the highly sought-after zone of Westgarth Primary and Northcote High, and just a short walk from amenities like High Street, the forthcoming Northcote Aquatic and Recreation Centre, All Nations Park, and Northcote Plaza, this home promises an enviable lifestyle with endless possibilities. Seize this unique chance to turn this house into your dream family home, tailored precisely to your tastes and needs.
