Befitting its sensational location, are the magnificent views from its multiple expansive decks which span across a north west aspect through to the south with its glorious views of the Noosa River, Lake, District, and meandering waterways encompassing the coastal mountain ranges. Sit back and relax or entertain with friends and family whilst you enjoy those glowing sunsets and calming Noosa breezes. Designed with the enviable Noosa lifestyle in mind, the floor plan has been created in a way to allow you to flow from one space to the next yet also enable a great deal of flexibility in terms of privacy or guest accommodation. Once inside, expansive interiors exemplify a sense of space and calm, complemented by soaring ceilings and a clever design overall that makes use of the natural light from its front Northerly orientation. An impressive sun-drenched entrance with its sparkling in-ground pool draws the eye seamlessly through to the relaxing outdoors. The cleverly designed entertainer's kitchen and fold-able doors provide for an abundance of storage yet allowing you to aesthetically and seamlessly close off areas not in use. Within a wing of its own yet intimately drawing in the long expansive Water, Lake and Hinterland views, the private master suite is exclusively elevated which includes a spacious Ensuite with jet spa and built-in robes. The two other bedrooms are also within separate wings of this modern residence providing complete privacy with the entry level lending itself to guest /teenage retreat inclusive of a separate lounge room, study alcove, bathroom, laundry and a large deck leading down to the level grass backyard. Your impressive home offers a brilliant coastal location, just minutes' drive from Noosa Main Beach and the thriving heart of Noosa Heads and the Junction with its fabulous cafes, restaurants, and world-class boutique shopping. This outstanding executive residence both captivates and entices to the point where you will never want to leave. To discover the true feeling and magic of this unrivaled property for yourself, arrange your personal viewing.
