This striking New Zealand-inspired property, built by Stroud Homes in 2021, offers a unique opportunity on an 8,000 sqm lot. Nestled within the peaceful Thrumster estate, it provides a serene escape with quick access to the thriving Sovereign Place Town Center. The grand entrance with Buck County stone accents and black Enseam invites you into a space with polished concrete floors, bathed in natural light from skylights and feature windows. The open-plan kitchen is a masterpiece in itself, featuring top-tier appliances and a versatile island-dining-bench. The master suite enjoys a private wing with a lavish ensuite and walk-in robe, while two bedrooms in the western wing share a beautiful main bathroom. Additional features include a spacious 15m x 10m shed, ducted air conditioning, a 22,000L rainwater tank, and a chicken coop. This one-of-a-kind property, only two years old, is in high demand, so act quickly!
