Boasting a perfect North-to-rear aspect, this exquisite Lomandra Estate residence on 920m² (approx.) epitomises contemporary rural elegance, with spacious interiors promising a lifestyle of easy luxury. Inside, the home finds its centre in a generous open concept living, kitchen and dining area, graced by an abundance of natural light. The kitchen focuses around a gorgeous stone island with seating, and is beautifully appointed with white cabinetry, a stainless steel Bosch dishwasher, ILVE oven/6-zone stovetop, and ILVE range hood – all complemented by a huge walk-in pantry. Accommodation comprises four generously sized bedrooms, each offering privacy and comfort. The main bedroom suite features plantation shutters, a walk-in robe, and a dual vanity ensuite with a double recessed shower. The other bedrooms are equally impressive, each with built in robes, and serviced by the central bathroom with bath and shower. Outdoor living is idyllic, accessed via glass sliding doors from the living area to a generous concreted outdoor entertaining area, perfect for alfresco dining amidst the landscaped gardens. The property also includes a remote controlled oversized double garage with internal access plus a rear roller door to extra off-street parking, gated side access, ceiling fans, ducted heating, evaporative cooling, and brilliant storage. A home of confidence and elegance, it's close to parks and playgrounds, schools, childcare options, and Romsey township.
