Situated on a great size allotment approximately 647 square metres in the heart of Cowes is this immaculately presented single level brick home. Nestled within walking distance to the vibrant main street, renowned eateries and cafes and the picturesque north facing beach, this property offers the epitome of convenient coastal living. With a spacious floor plan, the home comprises three good sized bedrooms including the master bedroom with a walk in robe and ensuite, two living areas and a family bathroom including a bath and separate shower. At the heart of the home lies the main open plan kitchen, living, and dining area, where natural light floods in through large windows, creating an inviting ambiance. The kitchen is equipped with quality appliances including a dishwasher, cook top and under bench oven and ample bench space and storage. Entertain with ease as the living area seamlessly flows out to the paved undercover outdoor space, perfect for alfresco dining or simply enjoying the fresh coastal air. The property is complete with low-maintenance surrounds, a large fully fenced backyard and excellent side access through double gates. In a fabulous location, the home would suit as either a permanent residence or holiday home. Additional features include: Evaporative cooling, split system heating and cooling, external blinds and a double garage with a remote control door and internal access. Don't miss the opportunity to make this delightful Cowes residence your own - where convenience meets comfort and coastal living awaits!
