Arguably the best one bedroom apartment in the village, you will enjoy outstanding north easterly views from the large balcony off the living area, and your friends will be equally impressed when they come to visit and share a wine with you. Apartments like this don't come up that often, so if this is something that appeals, I would suggest an immediate viewing might be in order. Ocean Gardens is a not-for-profit independent retirement living village for 55 plus community, located on the peak of City Beach overlooking the Indian Ocean.
