A stylish chef's kitchen with a double-door pantry, electric cooktop and two ovens brings this house up to date. Move in and you'll also enjoy the refreshed bathroom, and built-in robes in every room. The house maintains a lot of its original charm, with polished floorboards and a front verandah complete with cast iron railings. The space underneath the house is its best-kept secret; it includes a multi purpose area with a second bathroom and kitchenette; perfect for use as a home office or teenager's retreat. The backyard on the 582 sqm block is family friendly and easy to maintain. It includes a concrete area perfect for entertaining. Situated in the convenient suburb of Park Avenue, close to Richardson Road shopping village, Red Hill Homemaker Centre, Emmaus College and Glenmore State School. Property
