Flaunting breathtaking views from Victoria Harbour to Port Phillip Bay, this magnificent two-bedroom apartment offers a flexible layout with spectacular indoor-outdoor appeal. Surrounded by Dockland's many restaurants, cafés and bars, while just a free tram-ride into the CBD, the home provides an infinitely vivacious lifestyle, with literally everything at its door. Perched on the twenty-sixth floor and spread with sleek Oak floors, the home's open plan layout and wide balcony delivers a light and airy feel, providing plenty of space to relax and dine with friends against a picture-perfect sunset view. The fully appointed kitchen makes catering a breeze, offering quality Miele cooking appliances and a handy dish-drawer among its stylish timber-look cabinetry. A second bedroom or home office adds essential space for home-based work, while the generous robed bedroom entices a restful night's sleep against the glittery water-views, complemented by a stylish, fully tiled bathroom. Finished with a Euro laundry and secure carparking on title, and cocooned in today's best comfort and security, the home delivers a unique city-lifestyle, enriched by residents' facilities including pool, spa, gym, library, business lounge and podium-level garden retreat.
