Positioned on the Hope Island Resort's prestigious 'Grand Canal', this magnificent residence soaks in magic water views and stands as a testament to luxurious waterfront living. Boasting an impressive tri-level design on an expansive 1,000m² parcel with a substantial 20.2m* water frontage, the property also offers the unique opportunity to acquire an adjoining champion-sized tennis court. Crafted to be a timeless family haven, the mansion's interior is adorned with soaring ceilings, natural timber, and stone elements. The neutral colour palette seamlessly extends to outdoor living spaces, where an infinity-edge pool commands attention, providing captivating views of the water. Accessing the upper levels is effortless, either via a grand spiral staircase or a commercial-grade lift facilitating mobility across all three floors. This grand abode comprises seven generously appointed bedrooms, five equipped with ensuites, fostering relaxation and privacy for both residents and guests. The ground floor hosts an additional guest wing, complete with a kitchenette and a Heatwave sauna, offering versatile living arrangements. Further luxury improvements include a home theatre room, a 1000* bottle wine cellar and a secure eight-car* basement garage. The outdoor amenities include a 12*m powered pontoon, granting bridge-free access to the Coomera River and beyond.
