This beautiful, renovated home is set amongst some of Australia's most stunning rainforest and river settings. Brogers Creek is on the property's title and offers the owner the most idyllic private swimming holes one will find. The majority of the property is open, level and usable park lands with mature ornate trees. There is also a large orchard and private eco studio – the perfect place to read or even write your next novel. The property is the ultimate in seclusion yet with the convenience of a tar sealed drive approx. 12 minutes to town. Features include; * Separate eco studio * Outdoor pizza oven * Massive entertaining deck * Natural swimming hole/ creek the size of an Olympic swimming pool with resident Platypus * Unlimited supply of crystal-clear spring water services the property * Tar sealed road all the way to the property * 3 Bay shed (12m x 8m) with study area * Mature English style gardens surrounded by a 'Daintree Rainforest' like landscape * Secret garden trails throughout property * Enormous, covered vegetable and fruit orchard * Large suspension walking bridge over the creek plus various water features including a pond with fountain and red bridge
