What an excellent opportunity this is for any buyer looking to secure a decent acreage property that is affordable and close to everything you could want! The opportunities to develop further here are endless, yet you can still live as comfortable as anyone in the current set up. The home has been built as part of a large shed and is more than adequate for any family to live in yet you still have the benefit of a huge shed and heaps of outdoor space that offers tremendous potential. Whether you are a family just wanting space or you run a small business from home, this property could just tick the boxes that you've been struggling to tick! Take a look at the key features below: Just over 2.5 acre block with heaps of potential Private and secluded living Shed house with ample living and shed space Huge outdoor entertaining area Flat section - Ideal for future build Plenty of space to run a small business from home Just a short drive to Kirkwood Woolies and everything Gladstone has to offer Get in touch today... Opportunities to purchase decent parcels of land close to everything rarely become available!
