Opportunities are endless at this property, located in a picturesque country setting. Properties of this magnitude do not come along often, almost 100 acres consisting of cleared pasture and natural bush ready for farming or hobbies, and with the added convenience of a dam and bore on the property providing you abundant water supply, there are many options available to utilise the land. Positioned in a central location on the Frankford Highway enabling ease of access to explore the Narawntapu National Park, Port Sorell and beyond or heading East brings you to the heart of the West Tamar and onto Launceston. Alternatively heading North/West your only 40 kms from Devonport and the coast line. The 2 storey home is plentiful with 6 bedrooms and 3 living areas, offering space for everyone and with some updates and adding your own personal style to the home it has the potential to be brought back to its early glory. A large lock up barn offers separate rooms for all of your agriculture storage needs, from stockfeed to machinery and equipment, you can be sure there is room for all of your needs.
