This lovely east-facing apartment at The Beaumont retirement community features two bedrooms and one bathroom apartment has a fully enclosed balcony to soak up the morning sun and provides a whole extra space to be used all year round. This property has been renovated with an upgraded kitchen and new floor coverings throughout with quality window treatments and built-in wardrobes. There is a large storage room located off the balcony and a car bay in the secure undercover garage. Stop by and visit to see this stunning apartment within our boutique retirement community - we would love to show you around. With an active social calendar, hydrotherapy pool, gymnasium and quiet sitting areas to enjoy a book or two, there's so much to love about The Beaumont in Swanbourne. Located directly across from Claremont Crescent shopping and cafe strip, the village is also just a 100m walk to Swanbourne train station and a short drive from Cottesloe beach the local conveniences are at your fingertips. For more information or to inspect this property, phone our Sales Manager Henna Gupta at 0434 851 694.
