Located in the heart of Macrossan Street, Ray White Port Douglas are proud to present 27 Villa San Michele. Stepping into this Mediterranean inspired resort, you are instantly immersed in the holiday atmosphere. As you enter the apartment, you are welcomed to the open plan living area, with a kitchen for convenient easy meals and a spacious sitting area flowing to a balcony with views across well established palm trees creating a private outlook. The bedroom can be opened as a studio style or closed off with plantation shutters for privacy with an adjacent ensuite bathroom. Generous in size with a 50sqm floorplan the apartment has undergone recent upgrades to the bathroom, kitchen and fresh internal painting throughout, meaning it is ready for the new owner to continue enjoying the lucrative holiday market. Delivering positive returns, and in such a central location, this is not one to be missed. The complex offers guests all the amenities for a comfortable stay including 2 heated pools, whilst being a 2 minute walk from Four Mile Beach and on the doorstep of five star dining and shopping.
