Located at the end of a quiet no-thru street and with fabulous views out to sea, this home has been much loved by its current owner for many years. With space for everyone and beautiful views, they don't come much better than this for the price. The fabulous Tas oak kitchen has storage galore and plenty of space to cook up a storm with ease and the dishwasher makes the clean-up even easier. Open-plan dining area features large windows to capture all day sun and the views, and flows through to the covered sheltered deck - suitable for all year-round enjoyment. A separate lounge provides a place for relaxation and all bedrooms are double size with built-ins and the bathroom is neat and tidy with a walk-in shower. Easy undercover access from the carport and garage, and a bonus is the office located at the back of the garage which gives you options, work from home, kids rumpus, man cave...your choice. The backyard is huge with space for the largest of vege gardens, planting some more fruit trees, room for the kids to have a cricket match, and 4 legged animals to play. With so much on offer plus the advantage of being an easy walk to the local shops including the supermarket, bakery, butchers and the local primary and high school this home will be sure to make its next owners very happy.
