This modern home was built to cater for the entire family. It offers ample storage and finer finishes throughout. Firstly the master bedroom is large with a separate his and her closet, the ensuite is large with modern tile, ample storage and black tapware. As you move towards the minor bedrooms there is an additional space that can be utilised as a study area or kids rumpus room, whichever purpose would serve you best. The minor bedrooms are all well sized and offer built-ins. As you enter the combined living dining area it is open plan and large in space offering a clear view to the back patio. In addition there is a theatre room located off to the left. The kitchen offers ample storage with neutral tones throughout. Stainless steel appliances with a large 5 burner gas cooktop and large 90cm oven. In addition there is a large walk-in pantry. The laundry is large and there is additional pantry storage space. The rear yard is low maintenance and offers absolute privacy. Additional features include zoned ducted air conditioning and solar panels. Also don't forget there is additional parking for the boat or caravan out front. Located at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, this home is just the perfect oasis, just moments from schools, shops and just a short drive to Eaton Fair and Bunbury CBD.
