The layout of this house is generous in every proportion, is perfect for bringing the whole family together, yet works perfectly to give everyone their own space. The tiled, central living area includes a sleek kitchen, designated dining, and most accommodating lounge. The main bedroom with ensuite is away from the rest of the family bedrooms, and there is still a separate media room for quiet entertainment. Combined with these impressive indoor facilities, the private outdoor area, secure backyard and shed complete a versatile, functional, high end family home. Air-conditioning in the main bed and living area, ceiling fans throughout, ample built in storage, integrated garaging, immaculate established landscaping and a nice aspect with southern western views from the front of the home. An inspection is must to appreciate the effort the current owners have gone to create an ideal family home.
