An attractive traditional entrance introduces this fabulous single level freestanding Edwardian residence that has been completely transformed whilst keeping the stunning period features. High ceilings, period fireplaces and leadlight windows are complemented by modern day comforts. Recently painted throughout, near new carpets, window furnishings and a stunning landscaped garden- you will walk through this beautiful property and feel right at home. Three bedrooms are accompanied by two near new bathrooms (main bathroom with shower over bath) while three distinct living zones incorporate formal living, kitchen and dining, and a family room opening that opens out to an inviting undercover terrace and north facing rear garden (with garden shed). Additional features include hydronic heating, split system cooling, ceiling fans, off street parking, this light filled home is situated at the end of a tranquil cul de sac just moments from Central Park and Malvern East Village. To Inspect Please refer to the listed inspection times.
