Tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, backing right onto the local reserves and just around the corner from Sackville Street Public School, the Ingleburn RSL Club, and Ingleburn train station, 27 Desmond Street is a true delight. Establishing itself quite strongly onto the neighbourhood, this large property presents an exciting opportunity for anyone looking for pleasant family living, or options for development. 27 Desmond Street uniquely prioritises year-round comfort, benefiting from its north-facing aspect, ceiling fans and air conditioning throughout, a fireplace, and a rare oversized solar air convection heating system. This focus on comfortable living continues into the pleasant front-facing living area, formal dining, and central kitchen spaces. The kitchen also appreciates an induction cooktop, breakfast seating, and plenty of timber cabinetry. Sleeping arrangements can be four upstairs, with options for five bedrooms with ceiling fans, and a walk-in wardrobe and ensuite to the master. The home's backyard is tidy and pleasant, presenting plenty of gardening options; side access to a covered vehicle storage space; and direct access to Edna Reserve. Versatile and impressive, this is an excellent opportunity to purchase family-friendly perfection in a quiet Ingleburn location. Contact McLaren Real Estate ASAP to find out more. Features include:

- Land size – 660 square metres
- Walking distance to Sackville Street Public School, Ingleburn RSL; close to Ingleburn Public School, Ingleburn train station, and shopping
- Side access to backyard; backs onto Edna Reserve
- North-facing property with air conditioning, fans, fireplace, and solar air convection heating
