On behalf of our sellers, the Award-Winning team at Barry Plant Geelong proudly presents by way of Private Sale, 27 Elandi Street, Curlewis. Standing proudly on 630m² (approx.) of land, and offering close to 40 squares of lux living, is a family home that has been upheld to the highest esteem by our sellers. Blending contemporary finesse with an idyllic functionality, this coastal home is certain to receive praise from the most discerning of buyers. Upon entry the sheer size of this home is immediately felt, the long entrance hallway is certain to evoke positive thoughts, whilst the profile of the downstairs floorplan will leave an everlasting impression, which will help with the consolidation process when it comes time to make a purchase decision. In this area of the home you will find a study, a separate lounge area, and a large kitchen, meals and family zone that has been designed with the growing family top of mind. The kitchen features Caesarstone, a large center island benchtop, which makes for a perfect breakfast bench - this is further enhanced by an L shaped bench with ample cupboard space. You are blessed in this area with two separate walk in pantries. The upstairs pays further homage to the craftsmanship and thought that has been invested. In this area you will find four bedrooms, a rumpus/fifth bedroom, the master suite showcases bay vistas, his & hers walk in robes and a refined ensuite. The balance of bedrooms are assiduous in the manner in which they present - a further testament to the home proud nature of our sellers. The central bathroom provides the customary quality that you come to expect when you purchase at this level. Externally an alfresco and large yard space are perfect for the growing family, and sets the tone for what is certain to be an unforgettable tour. It is rare to find a home of this size and stature, on an equivalent land size. An incredible home, perched above the street with commanding appeal.
