Quietly set back on an expansive 810sqm approx. allotment at the foothills of the Dandenong Ranges, this single story brick veneer home has been lovingly maintained throughout the years, offering an impressive floor plan providing room for the whole family. With a beautiful outlook from the expansive front porch you are welcomed in to the cosy front formal living area with gas fireplace and timber floating floors. The hub of the home is certainly the kitchen with meals area and butlers pantry, which overlooks the huge family room complete with built in bar and separate sink for entertaining the whole year round. All three bedrooms are large in size with the master including mirrored sliding built in robes and are serviced by the master bathroom. Secure backyard, oversized single garage with workshop, shed, water tanks, roller shutters, ducted heating and ample off street parking this property is sure to impress! Situated in a prized family location, close to local shops, St Josephs College, Wally Tew Reserve, walking tracks and Ferntree Gull Train Station.
