Welcome to your dream retreat at the pinnacle of serene coastal living! Nestled within the mountain, this breathtaking 5-bedroom property, spread across 6.25 acres, offers unmatched tranquillity and showcases unparalleled ocean views to the east, with the iconic Norah Head Lighthouse adorning the North East horizon. Nestled amidst awe-inspiring bushland, this solid brick beauty is set against a backdrop of lush established gardens, with an orchestra of citrus trees dotting the landscape. The North East facing aspect ensures sun-drenched mornings, further accentuating the property's grandeur. As you make your entrance through the circular driveway, a touch of sophistication welcomes you. The extensive car storage is a dream for enthusiasts, boasting room for up to 8 vehicles; the Hayden Rd shed alone comfortably houses 4 cars, the tractor, and mowers, with an additional 4-car space under the house. Inside, the spacious two-level layout unfurls, presenting massive living areas designed for both intimate family moments and grand celebrations. The elevated setting, coupled with the gentle sea breeze rustling through the trees, crafts a melody of nature that will undoubtedly soothe your soul. Imagine evenings on your deck, basking in the serene ambiance, with the ocean's horizon meeting the sky. Moreover, for those with an equestrian passion, this gem once housed horses, boasting 3 separate paddocks. The potential to revive this equestrian dream remains; it only awaits the reintroduction of fencing. Beyond the property's boundaries, you're just minutes away from pristine beaches, top-tier schools, and a convenient 10-minute drive to the M1 Motorway, positioning you for a swift 1-hour commute to Sydney. This is more than just a home; it's a lifestyle opportunity that embodies both elegance and potential. Whether you envision a tranquil haven or a luxurious estate, this property offers endless possibilities. Begin your next chapter and embrace unparalleled coastal living today!
