This little gem is definitely a cutie and available for anyone looking in today's market for that neat cottage style home in a great location... Available on a fully fenced lush 1,012m² town block, this 2 bedroom lowset home is a sure winner... Inviting sunroom upon entry before proceeding into the generous air-conditioned living area with it's tongue and groove walls and high ceilings... Comfy combined kitchen and dining area with both the bedrooms located near-by... The bedrooms are very spacious, fanned and air-conditioned and the added bonus with this wonderful home is the convenience of having 2 complete bathroom amenities...To finish there is a downstairs internal laundry... There is a powered shed to park the family vehicle and extra room for storage... Massive backyard for the kids and furbabies with room to include an extra shed as well as a pool... Location is great, a quiet street not far from the CBD of Ayr... Definitely one to inspect so don't hesitate to call today...
