Perfectly manicured gardens with established trees is what you will find when you step foot into 27 Jean Street, Tamworth. This quaint four bedroom home has loads of street appeal in a central location putting you within walking distance to the local supermarket, town pool, pubs, chemist and high school, making this the perfect investment, first home or for someone looking to downsize. Inside the home it is neat and tidy from corner to corner, a gas fire installed in the lounge area, evaporative cooling throughout the home and a kitchen that provides loads of storage space. All four bedrooms encompass built in robes with the master bedroom providing a luxurious amount of space with a private ensuite attached. The large laundry with a built in linen cupboard provides you access straight out to the undercover patio, this area provides you an escape from reality with a place to relax and enjoy the magnificent backyard. The property has a single lock up garage for car storage set towards the back of the block. If you are trying to secure a great four bedroom, two bathroom home in a prime location that is as neat as a pin, give Justine 0459 226 570 or Isabel 0457 123 257 a call today and come along to one of our open homes.
