27 Kearneys Drive presents a delightful opportunity for first-time buyers or those seeking a comfortable downsize without compromising on space or comfort. This impeccable four-bedroom house stands on a generous 866 square metre plot, offering a blend of lifestyle and convenience. As you step inside, you are greeted by a spacious and inviting large lounge room, seamlessly extending into a dining area that captures the essence of family living. The heart of this home is undoubtedly the freshly renovated kitchen, boasting modern amenities and finishes that will inspire your culinary exploits. Each of the four bedrooms has been thoughtfully laid out to provide restful retreats, with two featuring built-in robes for streamlined storage. The practical three-way style bathroom includes a separate toilet and vanity, accommodating the morning rush with ease. Fresh near new carpeting underfoot and the luxury of a reverse cycle air conditioner create a home that's comfortable year-round. A second toilet at the rear adds to the home's convenience, ensuring guest comfort during alfresco gatherings. Step outside to discover a private studio, perfect for hobbies or as a home office, and a secure backyard sanctuary with well-established gardens and stately trees - an idyllic backdrop for leisurely afternoons. With a single lock-up garage and additional parking space, your vehicles are well taken care of. This is a residence that promises a serene lifestyle while situated in a friendly community. Embrace the charm and ease of 27 Kearneys Drive, your gateway to creating cherished memories in your new home.
