

27 Lenton Parade, Waterloo, NSW 2017

Sold House

Tuesday, 5 March 2024

27 Lenton Parade, Waterloo, NSW 2017

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Charles Touma
0283220750

Hayden Richards
0283220750

$1,850,000

Bathed in northerly light in a low-traffic cul-de-sac, this lovely home with onsite parking offers peaceful city-fringe living in a quiet pocket surrounded by parks. Interiors are predominantly original, including multiple fireplaces preserving the period character of the home. A superb prospect for professionals or young families, it also features high ceilings, a versatile attic work space, and a courtyard offering a place to escape and enjoy the northerly sunshine in privacy. This row of terraces is located close to the upcoming Metro Waterloo, while within walking distance of Waterloo Village, Redfern Station and Redfern Street restaurants, the site of the upcoming Surry Hills Village, and Crown Street nightlife.- Original hardwood floors on the lower level- Front bedroom adorned with original fireplace- Galley style kitchen provides abundant storage- Paved courtyard is enveloped in lush greenery- Character master has fireplace & private balcony- Large & vibrant attic for work/creative space- Bathroom provides a bath, internal laundry- Walk to Coles Waterloo or Woolworths Redfern - Exciting bars & restaurants at Surry Hills Village- Scope to add value, potential to extend (STCA)