Sitting pretty in this prized street, this gorgeous four bedroom three bathroom single level Californian Bungalow complements its classical elegance with its ability to entertain. Beautifully maintaining the rich timber detail, high decorative ceilings and gold fittings throughout, this distinguished home enjoys a leadlight entry to the enticing hallway, double doors to a charming lounge (wood fireplace), an antique baltic pine kitchen (stainless steel appliances) with substantial meals area (gas fireplace) and an expansive family living and dining room. There's a light filled rear master bedroom suite with two sets of built in robes and an ensuite with a double shower, three further large bedrooms with ample built in robes, two period inspired bathrooms and a huge laundry with generous storage. A series of sliding glass doors open to the covered entertainer's deck that drops down to the inviting outdoor spa and glorious west facing rear garden, while there's a drying deck on the side. Truly unique, this captivating family home is enhanced with timber floors, ducted heating, evaporative cooling, a sprinkler system, a drive through garage and a carport. In a lovely street, close to Patterson Road's vibrant cafés, IGA and train station, OLSH College, Halley Park and St Paul's Primary School, while within easy reach of Centre Road's shopping and dining scene, Hodgson Reserve dog park and Bentleigh Library.
