Welcome to 27 Native Corners, Campania, this stunning property is set among the natural beauty of the surrounding bushland and has been designed with large family living in mind. Offering the best of both worlds, this property combines the modern comforts of working from home with the inviting charm of a semi-rural lifestyle. The heart of the home is the spacious, light-filled open plan living area, perfect for creating cherished family memories and entertaining guests. The lounge room boasts a large gas wood fireplace, creating a cozy ambiance throughout the home. The dining and kitchen area is a beautiful light-filled space, offering incredible rural vistas and access to the deck, making it an ideal place for hosting gatherings. All five rooms in the home boast stunning scenic views, are double in size with built-in robes. The master suite features a spacious walk-in robe, its very own sizable ensuite and offers access to the extra-wide deck that is the perfect spot to enjoy your morning coffee or relax under the stars with a glass of wine. The house is designed to capture the spectacular views of the surrounding valleys and mountains. Plus, it hosts a 6x6 workshop with power, an enchanting jasmine vine and fairy light-covered pergola area, under-house storage space, 2 water tanks, an additional living/teenage retreat or playroom, ample off-street parking with space for garage or carport (STCA). This family home offers an abundance of space for the family to flourish and indulge in their passions. You'll never want to leave the inviting atmosphere that this remarkable property exudes.
