Step inside this charming brick home nestled in the sought-after Fed Square neighborhood. This hidden gem offers more than meets the eye, as lush greenery envelops the front facade, concealing a spacious four-bedroom, two-bathroom haven! As you enter, you'll be greeted by a roomy lounge, complete with a cozy wood fire heater (and a split system for those seeking modern comforts), ensuring year-round comfort. The kitchen provides all the essentials and leaves room for future improvements, seamlessly blending with beautiful floorboards that extend throughout the kitchen, dining area, entrance, and three of the bedrooms, as well as the additional family room. With its versatile floorplans boasting two bathrooms and an extra family space that could easily serve as an additional bedroom, this home is perfect for families of all sizes and compositions. Outside, the spacious backyard offers endless possibilities, while the garden shed provides ample storage for tools and knickknacks. With a secure lease until December 2024 & the way the year is flying by, this home offers potential for investors and those wanting a new place to call home.
