This completely level home, located in one of Port Macquarie's most popular areas, is perfect for retirees, families and investors alike. Very well-maintained, inside and out, and surrounded by house proud neighbours, this one home won't last long in this active price range. With size that will surprise, you will find a large lounge room on entry that opens to an equally proportioned dining space. The open plan kitchen, with a large breakfast bench and generous storage is ideally positioned for easy living with the oversized, light-filled family room, large enough to accommodate a dining table and lounge adjacent. Orientated to the North to capture the warming sun and cooling breezes, a covered outdoor area offers protected year-round living option, adding to this home's generous size and versatility. The queen-sized master bedroom is positioned at the front of the home to offer a quiet private space, complimented by a WIR and ensuite. The remaining two double bedrooms both feature built-in robes and are serviced by a large main bathroom. Outside, the yard has been levelled for ease of maintenance and offers a combination of space and garden to keep everyone entertained. If desired, there is space to create additional parking for a van, boat or trailer. Tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, this home is conveniently positioned a bit over 2 kilometres from the Base Hospital and within easy reach of Coles, Bunnings and universities.
