From the moment you step foot inside this immaculate property, you can be forgiven for thinking you are miles away from civilisation in your own private retreat. Behind the gardens and secure fencing you'll find an immaculately kept three bedroom, one and a half bathroom brick home. All three bedrooms are generous in size and have built in wardrobes. While the multiple living and dining spaces give you plenty of options! The kitchen is large and functional and the internal laundry has a very handy second toilet off it. Ducted evaporative cooling and gas bayonet heating service the home for year round comfort. Outside you'll find a double lock up carport through to gorgeous calming gardens, a large level yard and a fantastic powered shed! Currently rented by lovely long term tenants, who treat it like their own, this home is in the catchment area for some highly sought after schools and is only a few blocks away from Lake Albert Village and The Lake itself.
