

27 Terrigal Street, Morisset, NSW 2264

House For Sale

Friday, 5 April 2024

27 Terrigal Street, Morisset, NSW 2264

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 646 m2

Type: House

Paul Hills
0283769194

Harrison Freeland
0283769194

New to Market

Embrace the remarkable chance to acquire a stunning residence nestled within the flourishing suburb of Morriset. Meticulously restored with a keen eye for preserving its timeless charm, this home exudes elegance with its original wooden floorboards and captivating features, offering an inviting space ready for you to call home. Positioned on a sprawling corner block, inside, discover a harmonious layout featuring three bedrooms, a versatile study, a well-appointed kitchen and dining area, a cozy lounge, and an additional sleepout ideal for accommodating guests or providing sanctuary for the bustling teenager. Step outside to a delightful undercover entertaining area that overlooks a lush garden oasis and a sparkling swimming pool, creating the perfect setting for al fresco dining and hosting gatherings with loved ones. 200m to Morisset Public School and 450m to Morisset High School - talk about convenient for the kids. Plus a 10 minute walk to shops, station and the under construction Cedar Mill Lake Macquarie, which will become a 30,000 person concert venue with live entertainment and events, cafes and restaurants as well as an aquatic play park that is set to be the largest in Australia. due for completion in 2025. Morriset stands as a beacon of growth within the Central Coast region, benefiting from excellent infrastructure and proximity to key amenities such as the M1 highway and mainline station. Moreover, nature enthusiasts will revel in the proximity to the picturesque Watagan National Park, offering a plethora of outdoor activities including hiking, mountain biking, rock climbing, and kayaking amidst breathtaking natural vistas. Don't miss out on the chance to immerse yourself in the epitome of suburban living, where every corner reveals a blend of comfort, convenience, and natural beauty. Welcome home to Morriset - where cherished memories await.