With only one previous owner who has cherished and looked after their bespoke property with practical detail and care gone into every inch of their much loved home. Features like the front yard verandah overlooking the lush easy care garden, the striking solid Jarrah staircase with wide steps, double balustrades and a decorative stainless steel wire finish and most impressive are the timber post supports for the double storey extension in the patio area. The stunning high pitched ceiling in the front lounge sets this area apart and you can see this being the main room where the whole family will come together. The kitchen overlooks the tiled dining and secondary living with the backdrop of the magnificent staircase adding a spectacular feature. Downstairs has three bedrooms and two bathrooms with a separate toilet in the laundry while upstairs boasts 4 other good sized bedrooms all with robes, a bathroom plus a spacious living area/retreat with breathtaking views and ocean glimpses.
