Grand Tudor-Style Home In Ideal Position

This Tudor-style home is ideal for the growing family, with plenty of space and privacy. It is ready and waiting for an energetic new owner willing to offer some love and create a home that is unique and truly their own.

There is so much to love about this character-filled home.

Standing proudly at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, this two-storey home offers plenty of room to roam with extensive living areas plus a fully self-contained granny flat.

At the entrance, you are greeted by grand double doors that lead to a formal entry hall creating a real sense of occasion. A large open-plan living and dining room is to your left, filled with natural light.

A huge rumpus room with bi-fold doors provides a highly-practical indoor-outdoor living and entertaining space. Perhaps a games room for the kids or a party room for the adults?

The u-shaped kitchen provides a solid structure for new ideas with a practical layout, plenty of cupboard space and a servery to the adjacent living room.

From upstairs, you can enjoy views across the treetops and colourful sunset skies. The spacious master bedroom has a walk-in robe and ensuite bathroom. There are three further bedrooms on the upper level, plus a home office or retreat of the master bedroom.

There is a fully self-contained granny flat with its own entrance on the ground floor. It has a bedroom with a walk-in robe, a bathroom, fully-equipped kitchen and a lounge room. Perfect for guests, adult children or elderly family members to live independently.

Outside, you'll be impressed, you have an excellent basis for a formally landscaped garden packed with roses surrounding a beautiful lawn.

Perfectly positioned just up the road from a nature reserve and within walking distance to local schools, shops and parks. The beautiful southern beaches are just a short drive away, and easy access to the Southern Expressway will make commuting a breeze.
