Enjoying privacy, peace and quiet, this lovely home has an elevated position at the back of the block, looks out on to beautiful bushland with rain forest foliage and is surrounded by tiered gardens with several fenced areas. Should you need or wish to, there is room to extend the house, add a deck and install a pool. The large shed/workshop on the other side of the driveway is a great addition to the double carport on the house and could be converted into a studio and or self-contained apartment.
