

27 Wattlebird Loop, Joondalup, WA 6027

Sold House

Thursday, 21 March 2024

27 Wattlebird Loop, Joondalup, WA 6027

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 416 m²

Type: House

$1,115,000

Home open weekend 6/7 April 2024. Time TBC Make no mistake, this is one of the most stunning locations in Joondalup, with the Yellagonga Regional Park wrapped around your new home, or is it the city being a 5 min walk that makes the location perfect, - You choose! Or is it this gorgeous spacious free standing quality home oozing with elegance, offering an easy, carefree enjoyable living. Set in a quiet enclave this beautifully presented double storey Beaumont home commands your curiosity with curb appeal to match. Come and experience the lifestyle you have always craved! Upon entering this beautiful home, you will be hit by the amount of light and space you encounter! The open plan living area breathes life into this home. It's been recently modernised with modern wood like flooring and high ceilings. Starting with a MasterChef kitchen with a large island, Corian bench tops and stainless-steel quality appliances, with a huge utility/laundry room with loads of cupboard space too. Light streams into the gorgeous dining room, perfect for entertaining, and a soft and comfortable lounge to relax and enjoy. Need even more space? Yes! this home has that perfect theatre room to enjoy popcorn and movies every night! This leads out through big glass sliding doors to one of the many, unexpected bonuses this home has to offer, a delightful alfresco under the main roof of the house, with a sparkling solar heated pool, surrounded by beautifully landscaped courtyard gardens, sun lounges, café blinds and water feature. It's an oasis of peace and tranquillity! Upstairs is where you can sit and relax with a massive, classy parents lounge, with its own private balcony looking directly over the Yellagonga Regional Park, with the sound of cockatoos calling - what a place to watch the sunrise over huge eucalyptus trees with your morning coffee! Through French doors you enter into a king-sized master suite, with large fitted WIR and alluring modern ensuite with loads of bench space and again with Corian benchtops. The rest of the home has everything you could want and need. Downstairs are a further 3 generous bedrooms, with loads of robe space. There is also that 'must have' study for working from home which we all need. The glossy family sized bathroom with big bathtub, separate shower and powder room - It's great for the entire family or guests. There is an oversized double garage with the potential for a studio to be built above the garage, with extra storage space, 5Kw solar system, alarm and reticulation - it's all so big and appreciate to enjoy! Relax and savour the Serenity!