For those people who have been on a quest to find the ideally located allotment to build their forever home in Old Torquay, your search may be at an end. Alternatively, number 27 Zeally Bay Road offers a rare prospect to secure a development opportunity (STCA) in an unbeatable location highlighting a 20.15m frontage. Situated within an easy stroll to Taylor Park, Fisherman's Beach, Front Beach, thriving Gilbert Street, cafes, and restaurants. Behind the privacy of the front fence is the Old Torquay classic beach home, this could be your beach getaway whilst you navigate through the exciting time of planning the properties next chapter in this incredible coastal environment. This simple beach house has three bedrooms, large living / dining room with wood heater and reverse cycle heating and cooling system, kitchen, bathroom, laundry, separate WC, and single car garage. Situated on a massive 1012m² (approx.) allotment surrounded by gardens, fruit trees and veggies boxes, considered by many as one of the best locations in town, the property will attract the most discerning buyer who realises opportunities like these a few and far between.
