Situated on a generous block with Main Street and rear access off of Kitchener Street, this 1915 built stone home offers stand out features that every family seeks in a country home. Offering three large bedrooms, with the master bedroom having a wall to wall built in wardrobe and shower, bedrooms are carpeted continuing throughout house with original timber floorboards underneath. Centrally, a large formal lounge/family room with access to the western undercover entertaining area through sliding French doors. Walking through to the shared dining area, adjacent to the large gallery kitchen complete with island breakfast bar, dishwasher, electric cooking with copious cupboard storage, providing a wonderful space for family dinners and culinary preparations. Escape to the extended living area with wood heating and entertainment area access, where you can immerse yourself in the heated spa on the decking. Neatly presented bathroom with separate w/c internally. The large laundry room is located across the breeze way from the main household. CWMS is not connected to this property. This classic country home provides two large undercover entertainment areas, a heated spa, spacious shedding and a superior amount of land space all on one title.
