This incredible and unique lifestyle property set in a peaceful pocket of Officer will not disappoint. Upon entering the front gates you will immediately feel that you have escaped to the country, yet you are still conveniently located only a short drive from all your local amenities. If you are trying to escape the hustle and bustle, and want to be at one with nature, this is the property for you, you will have all the birdlife and native animals on your doorstep. The property is nestled in the southern edge of the Dandenong Ranges, overlooking the Beaconsfield Nature Conservation Reserve, sits proudly with panoramic views of the surrounding area, with the perfect sunset on offer. The home itself sits over two wings, with a well thought out layout ensuring plenty of space and versatility is on offer. The property offers in total 6 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms, multiple living areas, indoor pool, art studio, an underground store-room/cellar, and so much more! The home is a masterpiece that will impress, though its the fine points that highlight just how much love and care has been given to this home. The home itself is double bricked, with concrete slab flooring, latest reverse cycle heating and cooling, two wood heaters to ensure comfort is guaranteed all year round. Sustainability is prioritised with rainwater harvested into 5 x 20,000 litre tanks for domestic use. The water run-off captured into two year-round dams for watering of gardens via in-ground irrigation system. The indoor heated pool is equipped with the latest solar matting for heating of swimming pool and an additional heat-pump to ensure all year round use is possible. This property is sure to impress, the unique style, quality build, and immaculate presentation this home deserves your attention. Where else can you secure 20 acres (approx) so close to everything you need within such close proximity to the city. This property needs to be personally seen to take in its true magnificence as photos do not do justice or provide the pure sense of naturalness and serenity of this homestead. This home is thoughtfully presented, and lovingly cared for with nothing for you to apart from move in and let your dreams become reality. Large family, extended family, home business or just wanting peace and quiet, this home is one you must inspect! Call Hayley Taufa 0400 091 398 for more information!
