The perfect design for semi-independent living. A generous master sits at the front of the home and is separated from the minor three bedrooms by a long lay-out kitchen with a walk-in-pantry and adjoining laundry for organisation and presentation. The dividing communal living spaces means everyone can meet in the middle whilst still having their own room to live and grow in. A theatre at the back of the home allows for the kids to have friends over and be entertained in their own space. Your living area opens out onto a 28 course-ceiling alfresco, allowing for a more natural flow when entertaining and make the space more of a feature of the home. This stunning home features: - Walk-In Pantry- Alfresco- Walk-In Robe- Double Garage- Laundry Nook* Images depicted on this site are for illustration purposes only.
