Close to all of life's essentials including the future Yanchep Train Station. Make your way down the chic central passage to the soul of the Canterbury - an enormous open plan living/dining space which flows out onto an epic alfresco. With the perfect balance of indoor and outdoor options for entertaining and chilling, you'll be hosting all year round and living your best life. The galley style kitchen is seriously next level with heaps of bench space and a convenient brekky bar. Just step across to the walk-through laundry with plenty of storage - bonus! You'll love the convenience of the shopper's entrance, just a few steps away from the kitchen bench, making lugging in those grocery bags easy as. Tucked behind the central living area is a luxe master suite with a huge walk-through robe that leads to a sleek ensuite - fancy! *Images depicted on this site are for illustration purposes only.
