Declared Australia's first notable town in 1965, Maldon still maintains its 19th century charm and could be the ideal getaway opportunity. 3.19 acres* of gently sloping farmland may not be suitable for the construction of a dwelling, however, its picturesque setting could be perfect for weekend recreational activities such as camping (STCA). Steam train enthusiasts will delight in owning a piece of history, as the allotment is where the old Maldon-Shelbourne line once operated. Explore the beautiful Nuggety Range, hike to Mt Tarrangower and its breathtaking 360 degree views over regional Victoria, or walk through historic Maldon town and enjoy the cafes, stores and galleries. Enjoy boating, fishing and water-skiing at Cairn Curran reservoir, an easy 10-minute* drive on sealed roads. Only a 90-minute* drive from Melbourne, holidaying close to home has never offered so much or been so affordable!*Approximately
