First National Truganina welcomes you to this immaculate three-bedroom home, located in the illustrious “Elements Estate” which is situated close to a plethora of amenities such as the Tarneit Central Shopping Centre, Tarneit Train Station, primary and secondary schools and to top it off the property backs onto a picturesque creek setting. As you enter the property you will be amazed with its condition, with the look and feel of a brand-new built home that flows into an open plan living/dining area that overlooks the back courtyard which is perfect for hosting family or friends. The adjoining kitchen comprises 600mm stainless steel appliances and stone benchtops along with ample cupboard space. Upstairs boasts the master bedroom with ensuite and two spacious bedrooms all with built-in robes. The main bathroom & ensuite have upgraded fittings and tapware to add a luxury style to the home. This property also has the bonus of an automatic single-car garage, walking track access, a front study nook and an oversized European laundry. It ticks all the boxes and once you walk through the property, you will have to own it, so don't miss out on this great opportunity to call this your forever home.
