Nestled on a sprawling 1.19-acres (Approx.) canvas of natural beauty, 'Allawah' captures the essence of Mount Macedon living at its finest. This enchanting property boasts not only breathtaking views of the iconic Mount Towrong but also a harmonious blend of luxurious living and serene bushland tranquility. Offering a true escape from the hustle and bustle, creating an idyllic haven with mature landscaped gardens adding an exquisite touch to this property. Step inside to find a fully renovated three-bedroom residence with NSW Spotted Gum solid timber flooring, boasting an abundance of natural light through double glazed aluminium windows, creating an inviting ambiance. The centrally located entertainer's kitchen is a masterpiece, featuring a stone island benchtop (1.2m x 4m), a Bertazzoni 900mm electric twin oven, and gas six-burner cooktop. A separate scullery pantry with dishwasher and double sink ensures seamless meal preparation. A cozy living area with wood heater for relaxed evenings, while a separate dining and lounge room provide ample space for gatherings. The master bedroom is a haven for relaxation, boasting a private ensuite and an expansive walk-in robe, ensuring both comfort and style with a large window affording beautiful garden views. A further two bedrooms with built-in robes and a generously sized main bathroom beckons with its inviting bathtub. Enjoy year-round comfort with reverse cycle zoned heating and cooling, tailored to your preferences. Every room boasts double glazed aluminium windows, framing the natural beauty that surrounds you. Step through french doors with retractable fly screens onto the merbau deck with a wind out canvas awning, the perfect setting for alfresco dining and entertaining. With a double garage and additional garage/storage space under the home, this property accommodates all your storage needs. Set in a quiet pocket of picturesque Mount Macedon, enjoy privacy and security with post and rail timber fencing and electric gates with intercom. The driveway lined with ornamental pears illuminated with night lights leads you to 28 Cheniston Road, Mount Macedon, a sanctuary where natural beauty meets modern luxury. Don't miss the opportunity to call this exceptional property your home.
